

❖ About the UAB Barcelona Summer School

The UAB Barcelona Summer School offers undergraduate subjects in a range of fields; it takes place on the UAB Campus from late June to early August, once the ordinary academic year is over. The courses are taught 100% in English and are full-time intensive programmes, consisting of at least 55 contact hours over a three-week period. Lectures take place in the mornings from 9am to 1pm and students are recommended to spend between two and three hours per day on self-guided study. All subjects are worth 6 ECTS (European Credit Transfer and Accumulation System), which your university can transfer to your own degree programme (depending on your home university's regulations), particularly if it already has a mobility programme in place with the UAB.

TEACHING PERIODS AND SUBJECTS

25 June to 13 July 2018 (9am to 1pm)

- Leadership, Negotiation Techniques
- Theory and Analysis of Television
- Computer Networks
- Ecological Economics and Degrowth Principles
- Introduction to Nanoscience and Nanotechnology
- Planet Earth
- Introduction to Translation and Interpreting Technologies
- Resources for Teaching and Learning English in Infant and Primary Education
- Urban Performing Arts
- Psychological First Aid

16 July to 3 August 2018 (9am to 1pm)

- European Economic Integration
- Geography of Global Change
- Critical Thinking
- Fundamentals Psychobiology
- History of Asia
- Career Development for the Common Good
- Psychological First Aid (in Spanish)
- How Cities Bounce Back from a Terror Attack: Barcelona (Spain) as an Experience

❖ Why study at the Universitat Autònoma de Barcelona (UAB)?

The UAB is an interdisciplinary, modern, dynamic and international campus university. Offering 88 Bachelor's degrees and 133 official Master's degrees in 13 on-campus faculties, it is unquestionably one of the best options for studying in Europe.

2017-2018 is a very special year for the UAB as it is our 50th anniversary. Throughout these years, the UAB has been recognised for its work in promoting quality in teaching, for attracting international talent and for its increasingly influential impact on research, together with a progressively higher standing in the most prestigious and influential international higher-education rankings.

7,298 international students | 40,490 total student number

❖ Enjoy the UAB campus: housing options and other services

As a campus, the UAB offers a variety of services and accommodation:

- The Vila Universitària Halls of Residence and the Hotel Campus
- Libraries, remote access and working rooms
- Healthcare service
- Language service
- SAF (Physical Activity Service)

❖ Barcelona: one-step away. How to get here

The UAB provides you with an attractive range of academic options in the privileged surroundings of Barcelona. There are various ways to get to the UAB:

- FGC train: from the centre of Barcelona (Plaça Catalunya), the trip takes 35 minutes. Travel on lines S2 Sabadell P. del Nord or S6 U. Autònoma.
- RENFE train: lines R7 and R8 connect Barcelona and other towns in Catalonia with the campus.
- Sarbus e3 Bus: take the "e3" bus from La Sagrera (L5) or from Fabra i Puig (L1), which are two stops from the Barcelona underground.

UAB Barcelona Summer School 2018

Enrolment period: from mid-January to mid-May.

For all queries, please contact us at: summer@uab.cat

Further information: www.uab.cat/barcelona-summer-school